Introduction

An earlier incarnation of today's Jackson Brigade, the Jackson Family Association was formed in the 1920s with the view of preserving the clan's heritage and its ties of kinship.

The first reunion was held in 1922. The last apparently occurred in 1941, with the association most likely falling victim to the larger concerns of World War II. (The minutes for that final reunion, in fact, appear to be a rough draft that was never completed or revised.)

The association's records, however, were retained by Rella Jackson Rinehart, who served in the association's various offices throughout its existence. While conducting research on the Colonel Edward Jackson line, Nancy A. Jackson and Linda B. Meyers contacted Mrs. Rinehart's daughter, who permitted the pair to borrow and copy the record book.

The records are of value in that they show an early and wide-ranging interest among the various family lines in preserving their heritage. In reviewing the records, it is interesting to note such proposed efforts, unsuccessful though they would prove to be, as construction of a Jackson family museum and the movement of a "Stonewall" Jackson monument. Also intriguing are the mentions of the various talks made at the reunion. If only the text of some of those presentations had survived!

The guest registers, of course, provide us with details regarding our ancestors' whereabouts at specific times and may be viewed as a miniature census of sorts. I personally was very surprised to find listed among the guests my own grandparents (Gould and Edna Jackson), whom I previously believed had never journeyed farther from their Ritchie County, West Virginia home than nearby Parkersburg. Also listed among the guests is one Newton J. Jackson. Newton belonged to a line of Jacksons who claim descent through an illegitimate child of Jonathan Jackson. While family historians have hesitated to include this branch with the Jackson / Cummins heirs, it is interesting to note that among his contemporaries, at least, Newton and his family were considered welcomed members of the family.

One of the association's more ambitious efforts was its attempt to gather and catalog information on known Jackson / Cummins descendants. In 1927, it mailed out postcard questionnaires asking for family data. Unfortunately, only about three dozen of those cards remain, but they could be a valuable resource for anybody researching those particular branches of the family.

Some notes on the transcription process: In transcribing, I have attempted to alter the originals as little as possible. Despite my caution, several typographical errors no doubt remain in the transcription. Many items which may appear to be typos, however, are in fact faithful to the original. The word "committee," for example is invariably misspelled "comttee" in the original. The use of “[sic]” to denote a recognized error was not used in transcribing, as there were so many spelling and grammatical errors mistakes that I felt its use would detract from the flow of the text. In the registers, guests often used ditto marks (“”) to denote that their residence was identical to that of the previous guest. Rather than transcribing the ditto marks, I have spelled out the words. If I could not determine without a doubt that ditto marks were present, I did not enter any information.

Surprisingly, even some of the names seem to be misspelled, and my only explanation for some of these mistakes is that a specific person may have been registered by another person unfamiliar with the spelling. In situations where I was very unsure of my interpretation, I have placed words or names in [brackets]. In other cases, when I was completely unable to read a word, I marked the passages thus: [?]. Obviously, I have made some errors in reading some of the names, and I hope these will be brought to my attention. In searching for a specific name, one would do best to either truncate the name and / or try variant spellings.

Within the record book were other materials that I have not transcribed here. For instance, the record book contains very brief abstracts of all the reunion proceedings. These consist largely of death notices of those who had passed away during the previous year. As this information is included in the minutes themselves, the abstracts seemed of little value.

Similarly, the backs of the 1927 family questionnaires include typewritten summaries of the questionnaires themselves. Again, it seemed redundant to transcribe this data.

Also included within the records was an extensive list of names and cities of residence. The names are believed to be a contact list of known Jackson / Cummins descendants. Obviously, such a list might be of use. Because the list was undated, unidentified, very difficult to read, and likely not in its complete form, it was not transcribed, however.

Jackson Family Holds Reunion

Weston Attorney Records Meeting of Well Known State Family Last Saturday

(By Edward A. Brannon)

On Saturday, September 9th, at least 100 members of “the Jackson Clan” assembled in the beautiful grove on the grounds of the State Four-H Camp, near the home of Byron S. Jackson, to renew friendships and revive memories and recount exploits of some of the departed ones through whose veins had coursed the Jackson blood.

At noon a bountiful picnic dinner was served, and it was much enjoyed by the members of the Jackson families from the counties of Taylor, Barbour, Harrison, Upshur, Lewis, Wood and Randolph.

In the afternoon Stark A. White reminded those assembled that no previous reunion of the Jackson family had ever been held and stated that the primary purpose of the meeting was to decide upon the advisability of forming an association of those of Jackson lineage. Following the interesting address of Mr. White, delivered in his usual forceful and inspiring manner, informal talks were made by Taney Harrison and Miss Mary Jackson, of Clarksburg, Dr. C. E. White, of Buckhannon, and Edward A. Brannon, Col. Jackson Arnold and A. Perry White, (now in his 84th year.)

The day was a perfect one and the location of the grove so near to the historic Jackson Mill, where the great military genius, Stonewall Jackson, spent his boyhood and young manhood, naturally caused the speakers to devote their remarks chiefly to incidents in the life of this famous Virginian. Mr. A. P. White had known Stonewall Jackson, his cousin, well, and he and Mr. Asbury Davis, who was with General Jackson’s army in the war between the States recounted interesting facts gained from this close personal touch with the great commander; and Mr. White told of exploits of the remarkable woman, Elizabeth Cummins Jackson, from whom Stonewall Jackson and others of the same blood had undoubtedly inherited the indomitable will and the energy, perseverance and courage which made them notable. Mr. Harrison and Mr. Brannon gave succinct narratives of the life of General Jackson, of his military record in the war with Mexico and the war between the States, eulogized him as a man of integrity and ability, on whose name there was no stain, and cited exploits in his campaign—achieved by vigilance, sagacity, celerity and secrecy of movement and faultless tactical skill on the field of battle—that exhibited true military instinct and the highest military art.

Name Officers

At the reunion an organization was formed by the selection of Stark A. White as president, Edward A. Brannon as vice-president, Miss Grace Arnold, of Buckhannon, as recording secretary, Taney Harrison, of Clarksburg, as corresponding secretary and historian, W. E. Carpenter as treasurer, and an advisory committee composed of Newton Brake, of Upshur county, Miss Mary Jackson, of Harrison county, A. P. White and Edward Jackson, of Lewis county, Charles S. Jackson of Wood county, and D. H. Hill Arnold, of Randolph county.

From Harrison county there were Taney Harrison and family and Miss Jackson; from Upshur county, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. White, Miss Grace Arnold, Mrs. William S. O'Brien and daughter, and Newton Brake, the only living first cousin of Stonewall Jackson, and from the state of Indiana, Mrs. Burden.

At the reunion to be held on the same grounds next year it will be determined whether the association shall be maintained and if so, whether the reunions shall be held annually or biennially; and at the next reunion it is hoped that people of the Jackson blood from various sections of this state and from other states will be in attendance.

Dear Kinsman:

The second reunion of the numerous descendants of the early pioneers, John and Elizabeth Cummins Jackson, and of their sons, George, Edward, Samuel, John and Henry, and daughters, Sophia Davis, Elizabeth Brake and Mary Reger, will be held September 1st, 1923, at the old Jackson's Mill near Weston, Lewis County, West Virginia.

Many of our kinsmen have distinguished themselves in positions of great responsibility and honor, while the rank and file have by their energy and aggressiveness assumed leadership wherever they have gone.

Several thousand descendants of these sturdy pioneers will doubtless attend this great gathering, coming from far and near, to meet their kinsmen, to review family history and tradition, and to exchange reminiscences. An interesting programme will be arranged by the Executive Committee in which each person present will be given an opportunity to take part.

It is hoped that you and the members of your immediate family can attend. Kindly return the enclosed card. I will gladly mail copies of this announcement and other data to all of our Jackson relatives whose names and addresses you may furnish.

Sincerely yours,
Taney Harrison
Historian and Corresponding Secretary

The second annual reunion of the relatives and friends of Thomas Jonathan (Stonewall) Jackson was held at Jackson's Mill, West Virginia, September 1, 1923.

With good roads and ideal skies the morning gave promise of a day auspicious in the history of this remarkable family. Quite early in the morning automobiles began to pour in, some of which bore evidences of a long tramp across country; occupants scrambled out to meet old acquaintances and make new ones. Some were seen to gaze about and gradually take in the beauty of this historic spot. It was perhaps the chance of a lifetime to see the old mill and stroll about the sacred grounds, the haunts of the boyhood days of perhaps the greatest military genius the world has ever seen. The whole setting, the day, the gathering clansmen, the consciousness that in the veins flows the blood of the noble Stonewall, made the heart to swell with pardonable pride. Evidently each one was to be repaid for his pilgrimage. We say pilgrimage – Yes, for this spot is the Mecca, the Shrine of all those who recognize in Stonewall Jackson the consummation of their ideals of Christian greatness.

At the approach of noon Stark A. White, president of the association, in his usual striking tones, delivered a short address announcing the purpose of the gathering and outlining the day's program. At this juncture, however, a bounteous repast was spread from well-filled baskets of good things that only the female descendants of Elizabeth Cummins Jackson know how to prepare. Fried chicken, pie and cake were in evidence everywhere and of fragments there were left – possibly twelve baskets. Under this stimulus it seemed everybody tried to get acquainted with everybody else. Having indulged thus to the entire satisfaction of everybody, the hosts repaired to the pavilion to proceed with the literary part of the program. Addresses were made by the following persons:

Senator Geo. E. White, Weston.
Hon. D. H. Hill Arnold, Elkins.
Master Geo. E. White, Weston.
Senator Gohen Arnold, Buckhannon.
Miss Mary Jackson, Clarksburg.
Mr. A. P. White, Camden.
J. G. Jackson, Lost Creek.
Isaac Newton Brake, Buckhannon.
Charles H. Harrison, Parkersburg.
Taney Harrison, Clarkssburg.

W. E. Carpenter had a happy thought, he took a Kodak picture of Mr. Bodkins, a copy of which is to be placed in the minutes of this meeting.

A. P. White told of his summer Stonewall spent at the home of his fathers and the many good times they had together.

Miss Mary Jackson

Funeral service for Miss Mary Jackson, who died at a Clarksburg hospital on Friday of last week, were held in that city on Sunday afternoon. Miss Jackson was very well known in Weston. For several years she had been a nurse. She was a daughter of James T. Jackson, prominent merchant here at the time of the Civil War, and of Phoebe A Wilson, daughter of Col. Josiah D.

Wilson, of Clarksburg. She was a direct descendant of Colonel Benjamin Wilson and John Jackson Sr., both soldiers of the Revolutionary war. Colonel Wilson was the first clerk of the county court of Harrison county, serving in that capacity until his death. Thomas J. "Stonewall" Jackson was a great grandson of John Jackson, Sr., who settled in the vicinity of Buckhannon in 1768.

Miss Jackson was a member of the same family line as that of General "Stonewall" Jackson. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and of the Christ Episcopal church of Clarksburg which she joined as a young girl.

[undated newspaper clipping]:

Mr. Warren Brake (Son of Melvin Brake of Buckhannon) formerly of Upshur County died at Cumberland Md. Jan 21, 1925. Mr. Brake had attended all meetings.

Mrs. Mary Edmiston of Weston whose untimely death came as a surprise and shock to all of us. Mrs. Edmiston was present at all meetings.

[undated newspaper clipping]:

Mrs. Mary Edmiston.

The death of Mrs. Mary Edmiston on Sunday evening, was unexpected on the part of the community. Her condition, first reported to have included the double fracture of a limb, was later declared to have only been a severe rending of the muscles of the hip. But complications set in, and death soon relieved her of her sufferings. Pneumonia is assigned as the immediate cause of her death.

The deceased, who was the widow of Dr. Thomas B. Edmiston, and who was aged 76 years, was a daughter of the late William E. Arnold, and a niece of the late Congressman Benjamin Wilson, prominent as a lawyer and statesman, and one of the most eloquent platform speakers which this section of the Virginias has produced.

Mrs. Edmiston leaves a daughter, Grace Edmsiton, and one brother, Wilson A. Arnold, of Jackson's Mill.

Rev. John S. Alfriend will conduct the funeral service at 2:30 p. m., today. Interment at Machpelah.

Mrs. Lummie Fetty (widow of Perry E. Fetty) died at her home on Sept. 29, 1924.

Stonewall Jackson's Boyhood Home Now Camp

Old Mill Restored on Estate Where Famous General Lived

Park at Weston, W. Va., Site of State Four-H Camp, One of Show Spots in that Section. Family Located there in 1801.

Weston, W. Va., Aug. 24 (Special).—One of the show spots of West Virginia is Stonewall Jackson Park here, where "Stonewall" Jackson, Confederate general, spent his boyhood. The famous old mill was restored recently. This historic relic is now on the site of the West Virginia State Four-H camping grounds. This is claimed to be the original State Four-H camp and the largest State camp at present.

Located at Weston in 1801

In 1801 Edward Jackson located at Weston and he is variously mentioned in the county records of this and succeeding years. In 1808 he constructed an eight-foot dam across the West Fork river, where the old mill now stands. That year machinery was brought from Clarksburg and installed in a log building opposite the present site of the mill. Here [?] was en[?] and in 1830 the foundation timbers and stone were moved to the opposite side of the river, where another mill was constructed.

This building was burned and the present mill was constructed. The exact date when the present mill was constructed is not known, but it is supposed to have been before 1837, as there is a print showing the present building with the date of that year.

Damaged During Civil War.

Some idea of the way the building was constructed can be gained from the fact that flawless poplar beams were used, sixteen inches square and forty feet long. Native stone was used for the foundation. It contained two flour mills, two bolting machines and burrs for corn and other grain.

During the Civil War the machinery was damaged by Federal troops and since then countless people have taken away relics.

Mrs. Mary Jane Reeder

As the gentle setting of the sun at a quiet evening, so closed the earthly career of the subject of this sketch, Mary Jane Reeder, on Tuesday, December 17, 1929, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. R. M. McClain, at Burnsville, Braxton county.

Thus is recorded the ending of a long, happy and busy life, at the allotted time, three score years and ten, and time to spare, to be exact, 71 years, seven months and 12 days.

Mrs. Reeder was born on Turkey run, in Upshur county, May 5th, 1858, her parents being J. Lorenzo Dow and Lydia Lytle Brake. Her relationship to the family of Jacksons, the line of Gen. T. J. "Stonewall," gave her a connection with some of the most prominent of the families in Harrison, Upshur, Braxton and Lewis.

She was happily married to Granville J. Reeder in the fall of 1868, and with him moved to Big Run, near Walkersville, where she spent practically all her life near the point of the junction of this run with the West Fork river. To this union were born nine children, one of whom died in infancy, and eight of them living as follows: Mrs. M. W. Hefner and Mrs. R. M. McClain, of Burnsville, Mrs. Arthur Bull, of Ireland, Mrs. Lee Spaur and Lytle R. Reeder, of Walkersville, Wayne D., of French Creek, Goff J., of Winterset, Ohio, and Arthur R. Reeder, of Jane Lew.

One brother, J. M. Brake, of Morgantown, and two sisters, Mrs. Julia Jackson, of Jane Lew, and Mrs. Brenice Teter, of Buckhannon, also survive. She was the grandmother of 13 children and six great grandchildren. Mr. Reeder preceded her in death more than ten years ago. To appraise her life properly would require more space than we can reasonably expect to be used in these splendid papers.

We would like to bear testimony of her faith in God which began early in her life when she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church and to which she was devoted until her death. All her life was influenced by that faith, and she gave her best efforts for the building up of the church, together with her husband, who for years occupied important offices in the church, and each were largely instrumental in building the lovely edifice at Walkersville, from which her funeral was held on Wednesday, December 78, 1929, by the writer, in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and loving friends. The Rev. Moss Bias also assisted in the services.

The message of the occasion to honor her was based on the text, Prov. 31:30, "A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised." The music the sermon, the flowers, the friends, all bore tribute to the life of this worthy mother in Israel.

The devotion of the children to Mother Reeder was most marked, and sad were the scenes of the parting. Rev. McClain, at whose home she had been much of her time after breaking up housekeeping two years ago, and the last seven weeks of her life when she contracted the illness which caused her death, showed such devotion to and care for her as to merit a very high encomium. For this God will His high accord extend.

Tenderly were the remains laid to rest in the Hedding Chapel cemetery overlooking the West Fork river, two miles above Walkersville there beside the grave of the husband to await the resurrection of the just

Rec. Sec. Marie Jackson Pifer

The 18th annual reunion of the Jackson Clan was held at Jackson's Grove, Tennerton addition to Buckhannon, West Virginia, on August 27, 1938.

After an excellent picnic dinner the Clan was called to order by President James B. Peterson. A song entitled "Over on the Golden Shore" was rendered by the Shumaker Quartette. Invocation by Rev. Jackson White. The minutes of previous meeting were read by Mrs. Marie Arnold Pifer and approved by the Clan under motion by A. K. Brake and seconded by Stark White.

Another song was rendered by the Shumaker Quartette, entitled "Christ Abides". This was followed by a talk by Mr. Peterson, president. Some of the points of Mr. Peterson's address were these: We should organize our homes and populate our country with a good class of citizens. Our homes are the foundation of our country. The aims of our lives should be to make our country better.

Grace Arnold, historian, gave some interesting historical points in connection with the Clan, one of which was the reading of a part of an old letter found in Jacob Brake's Bible. Miss Arnold requested that members of the Clan forward to her any bits of interesting history they knew in connection with the Jackson Clan so that same might be incorporated in the Clan history.

Mrs. Guy Tetrick, who was treasurer, but could not be present, sent in a report showing $9.57 in the treasury. A motion was made by Mrs. Pifer, seconded by A. K. Brake, was carried, suggesting that a letter be written Mrs. Tetrick, thanking her for her report. Mrs. Rella Rinehart reported that she had received a dividend of $1.84 from the Weston Bank. Collection at the reunion was $3.00.

Jacob Barton

Mrs. Brenice Brake Teter

Following reports of deaths Stark White gave a tribute to the members of our Clan who had departed since the last meeting.

Miss Grace Arnold made a motion to hold the next meeting at Jackson Mill on Sunday, August 27, 1939. Motion carried.

A bill for printing from Kent Reger for $1.75 was received, and motion made by Stark White, and carried, that bill be paid.

At the suggestion of the nominating committee, consisting of Beatrice Arnold Giffin, Stark White, Chairman, and Rella Rinehart, the following officers were unanimously elected for 1939:

Rella Rinehart	President
Roscoe Jackson	Vice-President
Beatrice Giffin	Recording Secretary & Treas
Hazel Brake	Corresponding Secretary
Grace Arnold	Historian

To keep the records exactly correct, we feel it should be said that Rella Rinehart, being a member of the nominating committee, did not help nominate herself for president, but accepted the nomination from the floor, after Roscoe Jackson, who had been nominated by the committee for president, resigned because he had been president in the past several times. Roscoe Jackson nominated Rella Rinehart and she was elected unanimously.

After the business session a very unusual and inspiring address, entitled "Failure that Leads to Success", was given by Rev. Jackson White. The chief theme of his talk was that "God will help us use our failures for our success". The motto of his address was, "Fail Successfully".

The address was followed by some additional numbers by the quartette, entitled "We Shall Live Again", and "The Account Was Settled Long Ago". Also, upon request, a medley was sung by the quartette. After this a standing vote of thanks was given the quartette by the Clan.

A final motion was made by A. K. Brake that, since our meeting for 1939 was to be on a Sunday, a religious service be held, with Roscoe Jackson in charge. Motion was passed unanimously.

Motion was made and passed that meeting adjourn.

Minutes of the Jackson Clan Reunion, August 27th. 1939.

The 19th reunion of the Jackson Clan was held in the Picnic Grounds at Jackson's Mill, instead of at the Grove as had been planned. This place proved such a delightfully cool and beautiful place in which to hold services suitable to a Sabbath day, and where we might renew friendships with our kin folk, that no one regretted the change.

After a delicious picnic dinner, which was enjoyed by all who could come early, the meeting was called to order by our President, Mrs. Rilla Rinehart, of Jane Lew. The favorite old hymn, "Softly and Gently, Jesus is Calling" was sung by our friends of the Male Quartette, after which, due to the absence of an expected minister, Mrs. Rinehart read the impressive fifteenth chapter of the gospel of St. John. This was followed by a sincere prayer by the President.

The minutes of the meeting of the 18th reunion were read by the recording secretary, Beatrice Arnold Giffin, of Buckhannon and approved by the Clan.

Arthur Brake moved that Mrs. Rinehart, as President and the other officers be retained for another year. Grace Arnold seconded the motion and they were unanimously elected.

The question as to where and when the meeting for the 1940 reunion should be held brought forth quite a friendly discussion. The guests from Parkersburg gave such a gracious invitation to come to their city, while the Mannington Jacksons present gave just as kindly invitation to join their Jackson family reunion at the Mannington Park. Buckhannon members expressed themselves as wanting the Clan to meet at Jackson's Grove near Buckhannon, in memory of the first family of Jackson's to come to this part of the country and who settled near the town. The first Jackson home, that of John and Elizabeth (Cummins) Jackson, our common ancestors, being close to the historic Pringle Tree. Those who live near Jackson's Mill urged that the Clan meet again at the boyhood home of "Stonewall" Jackson.

Finally a vote was taken, and the number of uplifted hands gave the choice of the majority as Jackson's Mills, and an invitation was sent to the Jacksons at Mannington and at Parkersburg to meet again with us and then we might discuss meeting with them.

At this time we were entertained by the Quartette who sang "I Have Found a Safe Retreat."

Treasurer's report showed $14.50. A bill was presented for $1.75 for cards and printing and a motion was made and carried that it should be allowed.

Mr. Perry Hayes of Dorest, Ohio spoke for a few minutes on the importance of the Clan keeping in closer touch with each other and of what we might do to care for the neglected graces of some of our ancestors.

Arthur Brake moved that all Jackson Clans be united. This was seconded by Perry Hays. Motion carried.

Our attention was called to the broken tombstone of our ancestor Elizabeth Cummins Jackson, which was found several years ago by two of our number, and which at present is in the keeping of Mr. Guy Tetrick at Clarksburg. This stone was almost buried by brush and fallen leaves.

A discussion took place as to a better way in which we could advertise our reunion, and Miss Grace Arnold proposed that a committee be appointed to make some plans.

Grace Arnold moved that the 20th reunion of the Clan be held on Sunday August 25, 1940. This was seconded by Mr. Perry Hays. Motion carried.

Arthur Brake moved that we try to have some religious service in the early afternoon. This was seconded and carried.

A committee was appointed, composed of Byron Jackson, Don Rinehart, Will Carpenter and Rugh Hayes White, to see about resetting the loose stones and leveling off the cemetery here at the Mill.

Obituaries of members of the Clan who had passed away during the year were read in the report of the Historian, Grace Arnold, and afterwards mention was made of the death of Mr. John Shumaker, who had attended so many of our reunions and who had always taken part in the quartette.

It was found that among those present, two of the number (Mr. Stark White and Mr. Bryan Jackson) had attended every meeting of the Clan since its formation.

The Quartette sang "When the Clouds Break Away" and a standing vote of thanks was given to them by the Clan.

A collection amounting to $5.45 was taken, after which the meeting was adjourned by the President. However, quite a few lingered to chat and to compare notes as to the family tree.

Jackson Clan Re-Union August 25, 1940 Jackson’s Mill

Only 52 persons registered at the meeting of the Jackson Clan, on Sunday, August 25, 1940, in the Picnic Grounds, at Jackson’s Mill, and not all of these were able to be present at the bountiful dinner, which was served by the fairer sex.

Visiting around the table and catching up on the Clan family news, and still trying to straighten out the different family relationships, occupied the time until the meeting was called to order by the President Rella Jackson Rinehart. After the group had joined in singing the lovely old hymn, “Blest be the Tie that Binds”, the twenty third psalm was read and a prayer was offered by the president.

The minutes of the previous year were read and accepted.

The Committee who looked after the replacing of the stones, and cleaning up the family graveyard here at the mill, reported a bill of $1.50 for work done. Thanks to the committee was extended, for the effort made and the good work done. Many of those present had stopped by and were delighted to see such a change.

A bill for cards, printing of same and stamps and envelopes was presented by Mrs. Giffin. Motion carried that these bills be paid.

Here rests Edward Jackson, the second son of John & Elizabeth (Cummins) Jackson, as well as his second wife, Elizabeth Brake and many of his descendants.

The nominating committee was appointed by the President was as follows:

Julia Hayes Butcher, Bryon Jackson and Rinehart.

The officers, nominated and elected for the coming year were;

President	Beatrice Arnold Giffin	Buckhannon
1 st . Vice Pres.	Roy Cunningham	Bell

Secretary & Treasurer	Rella Jackson Rinehart	Jane Lew
Corresponding Sec.	Hazel Leonard Brake	Buckhannon
Historian	Grace D. Arnold	Buckhannon

Several letters written by Thomas J. Jackson to his sister Laura Arnold, were read by Mrs. Giffin, and two short articles concerning Jacksons, sent in by the Historian, who could not be present.

Deaths among the Clan during the past year, were reported, and sympathy extended to the families. These were of Mrs. Mecca (Fred) Cunningham Somerville, of Cosmopolis Wash (a sister of Mr. Bryan Jackson)

James Madison Cunningham, who died March 17, 1939. (a brother to Mrs. Bryan Jackson)

Edward Lee Hayes, born Dec. 2, 1866 and who died April 12, 1940. He was a son of David Jackson Hayes and his wife Minerva Smith.

Olive Rohrbough, a daughter of William Rohrbough and his wife Ann Conley, died at her home at Dailey. She was the wife of Norman Wamsley.

Mr. Perry Hayes of Dorset, Ohio spoke on the importance of marking the graves of our first ancestors to come into this part of the country, lest they may be forgotten. John Jackson and his consort, Elizabeth Cummins Jackson are buried in what used to be known as the Jackson graveyard, in Clarksburg, just off W. Pike street. At present there is nothing to mark the graves, and no trace of the stone which was on the grave of John, has been found. The stone, though broken, which once was at the grave of Elizabeth, is waiting to be restored. Mr. Hayes suggested that later other graves might be marked.

A discussion as to prices and kind took place, and it was suggested that we see whether we might be able to have government markers placed at these two graves, first, as they both were entitled to them, through their service to their country. Later other stones might be set up, but if any stones are at the graves, the government will not place their markers.

A committee of the officers for the coming year was appointed to investigate the matter. Also to contact members of the Clan who would be willing to pay for suitable tombstones for the graves later on. Mr. Hayes said he would give $5.00 towards the two stones.

A collection was taken and the amount reported as

A motion to adjourn was made by Mr. Pete Brake, of Lorentz, and was seconded by Mr. Newton Jackson of Washburn. Evidently the motion carried as with good byes being said, and cars starting up, we all left to meet again, at the same place, on the fourth Sunday of August, 1941.
