

A wife of noble character who can find?
She is worth far more than rubies.

Her husband has full confidence in her
and lacks nothing of value.

She brings him good, not harm,
all the days of her life.

She selects wool and flax
and works with eager hands...

She gets up while it is still dark;

She provides food for her family
and portions for her servant girls....

She sets about her work vigorously;
her arms are strong for her tasks....

She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.

When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet.

She makes coverings for her bed;
she is clothed in fine linen and purple.

She makes linen garments and sells them,
and supplies the merchants with sashes

She is clothed with strength and dignity:
she can laugh at the days to come.

She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise and call her blessed;

her husband also, and he praises her:

“Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all.”

Give her the reward she has earned,
and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Obituary

Almeda Aomia Waugh Kiser, after a lengthy illness, when she said “Jesus said it wasn’t her time to go,” He finally called her and took her home with him to His house on October 26, 2004.

Proverbs 31:10-13, 15, 17, 20-22, 24-29

Mrs. Kiser was born in Borders Draft, WV on December 4, 1923, the daughter of the late Warden E. and Nellie Viola [Dixon] Waugh. She worked for eighteen years as a housekeeper at Veterans Administration Medical Center in Perrypoint, MD, and also at Augusta Military Academy, VA.

After making her home in Port Deposit, Cecil County, MD for 33 years, the family returned to Virginia, residing at Weyers Cave.

Mrs. Kiser leaves to cherish her fond memories: her husband, Wade Andrew Kiser; her five children, Leonard Andrew Kiser & his wife Carol, of Verona, VA; Larry Allen Kiser & his wife Pat, of Tucson, AZ; Danial Alvin Kiser, and his wife Kathy, of Elkton, MD; Randy Alford Kiser, of Mt. Sidney, VA; a daughter, Aomia Almeda Sage & her husband, Roger of Perryville, MD; twelve grandchildren; Torry Kiser, Dana Saunders, Katherine Carroll, John Kiser, Richard Kiser, Charles Kiser, Stephen Kiser, Tanya Lucas, Michael Kiser, Felecia Kiser, Natasha Kiser, Anna Sage, and a host of great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind many beloved friends and other relatives to cherish her fond memories.

Mrs. Kiser was preceded in death by her sisters; Freda, Opal, Nora, and her brothers; Elmer and Harry. Surviving her is her younger brother, Warden Waugh of Hawaii.

Put Your Problems in God's Hands

Although it sometimes seems to us our prayers
have not been heard,

God always knows our every word.

He will not forsake us even through the way is steep,
for always He is near to us, a tender watch to keep.

And in good time He will answer us,
and in His love He'll send greater things than we have asked and blessings without end.

So though we do not understand why trouble comes to man, can we not be contented just to know it is God's plan.
