

Daily Assignment #19

(due: Tuesday, April 26, 9:30 am)

1. Title for Talk

Your final talks will be open to the public. (Feel free to ask your friends.) For the announcement please send me the title for your talk.

1. Main Paper:

Hand in as hardcopy your first version of your main paper. You find a description of the contents in the earlier hand-out (see our webpage http://www.eg.bucknell.edu/~kvollmay/caps_s2005/ and there click on “Main Papers”). The paper is the same as your first paper (unless the content changed meanwhile, and besides further revisions in response to comments), but now also with an abstract, results section, and conclusions.

2. Comments:

What of the last classes did you find most interesting and/or most difficult? I appreciate your feedback.
