

DAILY ASSIGNMENT

Announcements: On Wednesday, Sept. 3, we meet in the Writing Center (Roberts Hall - second floor), at our regular class time 10-11 am. Please be on time. Bring your first draft of the paper to this meeting.

due: Wednesday September 3, 10 am

1. Write the "first draft" of your autobiographical paper. Use as guidelines your sketch of the paper and the description of the paper on the backside of the daily assignment for today (Sept.1). Try to write the paper such that you think that it is your final paper, which most likely means that it will not be your "first" version. You will share your paper in class on Wednesday, when we will visit the Writing Center for peer review.
