Announcement: Bring Cat’s cradle to our Friday (Sept. 27) class.

due: Friday, September 27, 8 am read: ERES: (Click on “The many Faces of Science” and then on) “What motivates scientists”

Hand your answers back to me either via email (kvollmay@bucknell.edu) or as hardcopy.

1. Write an about one page long paper (formal writing). Describe a situation during which you were working hard and which you nevertheless found very rewarding. Describe the kind of pleasure you experienced.

2. What motivates scientists (use the reading). Be more detailed than the list.

3. With what of this assignment did you have most difficulty and/or what was most interesting?
